

Field House and Park Dedication Is Sunday

Simple Ceremonies To Mark Completion Of Arl. Recreation Plant

Arlington Heights recreation park was started without a fanfare of trumpets; the completion of its various units were made without much noise, but the official dedication of the completed recreation unit will not be allowed to pass without a community wide celebration.

The dedication proper will be held Sunday afternoon when a parade will be followed with a program starting at 2:30. There will be no attempt to award any floral bouquets to the local individuals who have had a part in the start of the construction to the completion of the project. The park board is content to just say, "here it is, use it."

The occasion, however, is considered of special importance to the Chicago area by the district office of the WPA. H. M. McCullen, district director of Works Progress Administration will deliver the dedication address. Talks will be given by Charles E. Miner, state administrator of the WPA and Chauncey Hyatt of the state board in charge of swimming pools. At the suggestion of the WPA, Orval Hamilton, a man who worked on the project, will represent his fellow workmen.

President Geo. K. Volz, of the park board will preside and give the address of welcome.

Start of Recreation Project

The story of the birth and development of recreation park is a long one. It received its impetus at a meeting of the village board, its sponsors at that time being interested in securing a swimming pool for Arlington Heights. With the deadline near for acceptance of WPA applications, midnight oil was burned to complete the preparatory papers.

Waldemar Krause aided the cause by donating eleven lots; others made offers of property at small remuneration. In the meantime actual work on a park project was started under a WPA grant to the village, which grant is still in existence. The tennis courts and baseball diamond were the accomplishments under the original village setup.

In the meantime, the opportunity of a much enlarged project required the cooperation of the local park board with its bonding power, which, after an expression of the voters approving purchase of property and issuance of bonds, took complete charge of the project and it was under its supervision that the swimming tank and field house were built and the many extras were made possible.

Swimming Pool in Operation

The swimming pool was put into operation the latter part of last summer. Under the WPA procedure the completion of the field house required additional time but at its dedication Sunday, it stands as a completed building. It is expected that the park board will be able to continue the park project with WPA aid until fall.

Arlington Heights Park District was organized by an election held May 26, 1925, and pursuant to an order entered by the County Judge of Cook County June 9, 1925.

The first Board of Trustees consisted of: Nathaniel M. Banta, president; Henry C. Klehm, Eugene N. Berbecker, Albert F. Volz, Julius D. Flentje, commissioners; William F. Meyer, secretary; William J. Hausam, treasurer.

Each of the first elected Commissioners has served as president of the Park District. The original Park District boundary was enlarged by an election held on November 21, 1935, and the Park District boundary now is the same as the Village boundary.

By a referendum vote the Recreation Park site was authorized to be purchased on May 23, 1936. Since that time, the Field House, Shelter House, Swimming Pool, Wading Pool, Skating Rink and Croquet Court have been built and they are now available for the use of the residents of the Park District.

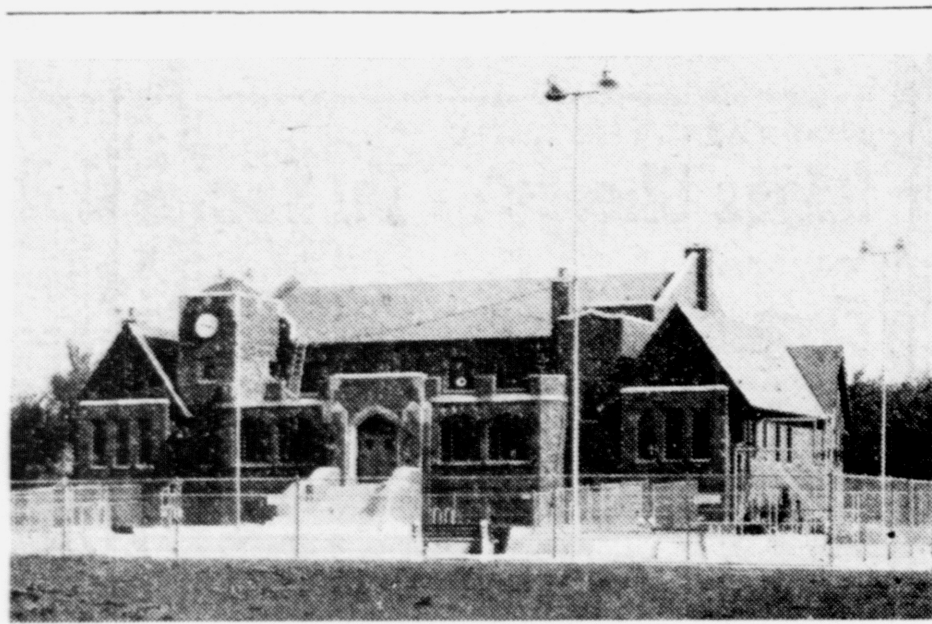

In addition to these facilities, Baseball Diamonds, Tennis Courts, Shuffle Board Courts and Horse-shoe Courts are available.

The present Board of Park Commissioners consists of:

George K. Volz, president; Elmer W. Crane, vice president; Geo. A. Glow, Paul C. Taege, William Windheim, commissioners; Otto G. Bolte, secretary; Glen M. Benson, treasurer.

Bees Of One Hive Object To Methods Of Bandits

Chas. Folkers, Jr., residing on Dwyer st. in the western part of Arlington Heights, lost four hives of bees three weeks ago. His neighbor, Herman Schneider, who owns nine hives, had better luck last Thursday when thieves attempted to carry off his hives. The bees demonstrated their objection in such a forceful manner that the hives were dropped by the bandits. This is the first time that bee hives have been stolen in Arlington Heights. At the Folkers home the thieves drove through unused roads.

W. E. Fritz Opens Law Office In Cook Farm Bureau Building

Wilfred Edward Fritz, a resident of Arlington Heights the past ten years, has opened a full time law office in the Cook County Farm Bureau building. Mr. Fritz was connected with the Chicago law firm of Robertson, Crowe & Spence, which dissolved May 1. He believes that there is a real need and future for a law office in Arlington Heights and that the need is sufficient to call for full time service of an attorney.

The firm with which he was associated, specialized in insurance cases and handled many claims of the I.A.A. insurance. Mr. Fritz has had many years experience in all branches of legal work and is available for consultation on legal matters of any nature. He is conveniently located on the balcony of the Farm Bureau building. His phone number is 441.

No. It Is Not A Fishing Trip For The Editor

When it became known that Stuart R. Paddock, editor of Paddock Publications would spend his annual vacation the coming ten days at a cottage on Fox River, best wishes for fishing, became so numerous that the Ed. is making known that he will not bring back any fish stories because there are not such animals in Fox River. Besides, he is just going to sit and sit. If any readers, advertisers or customers have any bricks to throw at the paper, they will have to wait until after June 5.

Arlington Elevator Putting On New Front

The coal and fuel yards of the Arlington Elevator & Coal Co., may be located in what can be called the front yard of Arlington Heights, but George Schneberger is doing his best to make it an attractive front yard. Painters were at work this week on the silos and other improvements are being made, making the place as near streamlined as possible.

Sign Contract For New Freight Depot, Arlington

Eleven Directors of Civic Association Pledge Completion

The death knell of the fifty year old freight depot in the center of the Arlington Heights business district was sounded this week when the eleven members of the board of directors of Arlington Heights Trade and Civic Association affixed their names to the contract with the Chicago & North Western R. R. pledging the association to the wrecking of the old depot and the erection of a new structure two blocks further west.

The North Western would not allow any guess work to enter the picture and a hard and fast contract, exempting them of any liability for damages or cost of construction was required by them before they would give authority for the wrecking of the old building. Some of the provisions of that contract were, but the members of the board of directors "went the whole way" and signed on the dotted line.

They believe that the general approval of the business district about the improvement is sufficient to assure an early pledging of the required amount of money that is needed for the materials and work. Pledges of working hours are now being received by Mr. Schneberger to whom such offers should be made. Herman Zukkel will remove the old building at no expense to the association. Axel Johnson, builder at the high school, will pour the foundation without cost. Claude Butler and Smith & Dawson will donate one day's labor of their masons.

Offers of help from carpenters and others, will be welcomed by Mr. Schneberger. It is his hope to confine the actual cost in dollars and cents to the purchase of materials. Solicitation of funds will be made after the business men and others have had the opportunity to make voluntary subscriptions.

The board of directors, whose names appear on the contract are: Hy. F. Muller, president; W. Krause, Jr., Geo. F. Schneberger, C. L. Griffith, Edwin W. Bauman, W. C. Hartman, Nicholas Lattot, M. R. Watson, Elroy Winkelman, H. J. Thal and Theo. Studtmann.

The new depot will be 24x45 feet, constructed of haydite block with stucco coat, the upper part of which will be of similar architecture as office of Arlington Elevator & Coal Co.

The removal of the present freight depot is the first 1939 objective of the trade and civic association. Alteration of passenger depot is the next one.

The financial goal for the freight depot is $1500. Pledges can be made to anyone of the directors or to Walter Krause, treasurer.

Hoover Speaks To Editors in 'Off the Record' Talk

Herbert Hoover, ex-president of the United States, spoke to northern Illinois editors at a dinner conference at the LaGrange country club, Saturday afternoon. Hoover's talk was "off the record" as it was an extemporaneous talk in reply to their questions.

The former president assured the editors of Illinois weeklies and small dailies that he would not be a candidate in the 1940 election, nor did he have any likely candidate in mind as yet.

Hoover struck at the New Deal government for its debt accumulation, agricultural tariff policy, relief administration, and control of labor. He noted that the number of striking laborers had increased 600 per cent in recent years. The ex-president strongly urged that the nation maintain a "stand-off" policy with central European countries.

His experience during the World War had made him doubt the inevitability of the U. S. becoming embroiled in a general European war.

Pointing out the large Republican gains in the recent election, Mr. Hoover said he believed that the Republican party was heading toward a presidential victory in 1940.

Will Loomis, publisher of the LaGrange Citizen and past president of the National Editorial Association, presided at the meeting. S. R. Paddock and son, Stuart, Jr., editors of the Paddock Publications, were present.

Mr. Fairweather presented a mass of figures and statistics and then told what his committee recommended be done about it all. He said that the delinquents were of two main classes, the high valued, valuable properties and the dead subdivision properties.

40% of the delinquencies is in the higher valued brackets represented by about 5,000 properties.

Suggest Local Committees

Mr. Fairweather's committee recommended a Bureau of Delinquent Tax Collection, and they also recommended some legislation that would put teeth in the foreclosure and judgment lien laws that would make it an inducement for a buyer to become interested in delinquent properties.

Following Mr. Fairweather, representatives from two districts that have started an organized drive on tax delinquents, spoke on what their committees were doing.

Out along the north shore the threat of foreclosure sales had brought in a lot of back taxes and speeded up current collections.

In the south part of the county the movement was only in its formative stage and with a lesser quality of delinquents, no such results as on the north side could be expected.

The gathering talked over various bills which are before the legislature affecting schools and their operation.

approve Puffer's Course

Mr. Puffer who handled the meeting in a very friendly, able and diplomatic manner, was given a rousing hand by the assembly for taking the interest he does in the affairs of all the schools and in calling that meeting and making such a comprehensive report.

Mr. Puffer modestly replied that he felt that he was only doing his duty as County Supt. and that he was always glad to discuss school affairs with school officials.

It is Mr. Puffer's practice to call these periodic meetings of the school officials of the county for a discussion of important school affairs and this attitude on the part of the county supt. is greatly appreciated by the school officials throughout the county.

School Men Study Tax Delinquencies

Over 400 school officials of Cook county, men and women, crowded one of the big dining rooms of the Sherman hotel to the walls Monday evening at the meeting of school officials called by County Supt. Noble J. Puffer, for the purpose of discussing school problems.

The chief problem taken up by the meeting was that of finances. How to collect more of the taxes levied by the school districts, was the greatest problem confronting the school boards.

It was shown that the regular taxpayers, the old reliables, who always pay their taxes, are paying about 20% more than they should have to pay, if the total amount of taxes could be collected.

And how to get the balance of those taxes collected and thereby relieve the overburdened faithful taxpayer was the big problem.

Mr. Puffer opened the meeting with a short summary of the financial problems facing the school officials and had passed around to the school boards a survey of the school finances in Cook county.

This survey, compiled by Mr. Puffer's office, holds an amazing amount of useful and surprising information.

Big Drop in Valuations

Just hitting some of the high spots of that survey, it showed that the total assessed valuations on which the elementary schools levied taxes had dropped from $720,914,929 in 1930 to $421,169,927 in 1938.

In the high school field the drop was from $1,348,723,633 in 1930 to $799,200,321 in 1938.

The survey also showed that the enrollment in the elementary schools had dropped from 80,660 in 1930 to 74,166 in 1938, and in the high schools the enrollment had increased from 23,168 in 1930 to 33,699 in 1938.

Another interesting item revealed by the survey was the fact that in 1930 the average cost per pupil in the elementary schools was $150, and in 1938 — $88. In the high schools the per pupil cost in 1930 was $223 and in 1938 — $164, showing that the school officials of the county were prompt to realize that economy was needed in the depression years and that they vigorously applied that economy to school affairs.

Losses in Tax Collections

The report also contained a very interesting and instructive chart showing a survey made of a cross section of school districts in various parts of the county, showing the percentage of taxes collected as against the total tax extension.

The average collection for a ten year period in a district in the northeast part of the county was 60.94%. In the north part of the county one district had an 82.22% average and another 78.32%.

In the northwest part of the county, one district showed a 76% average and another 73.07%.

Two districts in the west part of the county showed 77.78% and 80.76% respectively.

In the southwest part of the county one district's average was 78.80%.

Four districts in the south part of the county showed percentages of 64.44%, 76.30%, 74.63% and 59.18%.

Three districts in the southeast section of the county turned in averages of 76.43%, 74.04% and 71.81%.

The ten year average for the entire county of the schools investigated was 74.05%.

There are, of course, some school districts in the county which show a greater percentage and some that show a much lesser average.

Inside Tax Facts

After briefly summarizing the survey which he had submitted to the school officials, Mr. Puffer introduced Mr. George O. Fairweather of the Citizens Committee on Tax Collection.

Mr. Fairweather is a man well versed on tax matters as he has for years been mixed up in tax affairs always as the representative of the moneyed interests.

Mr. Fairweather told how his committee was making a study of the delinquent tax problem and what they recommended be done about it.

In this investigation, the committee had used experienced men from the assessor's office, the county treasurer's office, the county clerk's office, the state's attorney's office and in fact from all offices that had to do with tax matters.

The speaker paid high tribute to the assistance given the committee by these men from the several county offices.

Mr. Fairweather presented a mass of figures and statistics and then told what his committee recommended be done about it all. He said that the delinquents were of two main classes, the high valued, valuable properties and the dead subdivision properties.

40% of the delinquencies is in the higher valued brackets represented by about 5,000 properties.

Fate of Cut Price Gas Station Up to Old Folks Home

Service Station Owners Make Determined Fight Against New Station

Owners of the 22 gas service stations in Arlington Heights put up a determined fight before the Arlington Heights village board Monday night to prevent the issuance of a building permit that will enable Mr. Messinger to erect a gas station on the Watson property west of Old Folks Home, Messinger admits that it is his purpose to "sell for less" than the present station.

Attorney Adam, representing the present gas service stations put forward every possible argument that would justify the board to direct Building Commissioner Taege to refuse a permit. The latter reported that from a structural standpoint, the plans were adequate and had been approved by the state fire marshal's office.

Claims of proximity to high school do not apply in this case. As a last resort, arguments were advanced that the Old Folks Home had a right to be heard and an adjournment of the board was given to give its governing body an opportunity to express its desires.

St. James church was granted permission to hold its annual carnival July 9, providing that loud speaker is not used.

A water delinquent list, amounting to $896.92 brought about considerable discussion. Mr. Luehring was ordered to shut off without notice all consumers with delinquencies of two quarters. An effort will be made to have water rentals for those on relief, paid direct by the supervisor, similar to the manner that rentals and electric light bills are handled.

New evidences of acid at the sewage treatment plant has brought about a decision on the part of the board that a permanent remedy must be found. A conference was held this week between engineers of the village and representatives of the Creamery Package Co., the result of which has not yet been learned. It is understood that the manufacturing company may construct underground tanks, if the expense is not prohibitive.

Other bulletins issued this month demand the most efficient activity possible. "Every violation which may be considered deliberate should be prosecuted as an arrest case, rather than to issue a warning. It is not the intent to persecute the motoring public, but since accidents are shown to occur entirely from the misconduct of drivers, all deliberate violations must be prosecuted."

An explanation of the special activity on the part of the state officers to enforce drivers' license law is to be found in orders reading: "Arrest tickets will be issued to those persons not having drivers' license certificates. Those drivers who are apprehended upon a highway without such a certificate, will be given an arrest ticket and directed to proceed to their home by the shortest possible route, and to refrain from driving a car until the license has been received."

Many Motorcyclists Arrested

When Lt. Quinto, traveling over the Northwest highway Sunday morning saw many motorcyclists without 1939 licenses traveling to the Cary Hill climb, he caused to be broadcast orders for special police detail to await for the return of the motorcyclists. Over 25 were arrested at Arlington Heights.

The motorist, especially the truck driver who passes over the highways, must obey every section of the law.

Possession of state and driver's licenses are not enough. Stop signs, overloaded axles, burned out light bulbs, faulty brakes, are all serious offenses under the new orders. Speed in excess of that permitted is not being overlooked.

High School Again Wins Approval of North Central Ass'n

Mr. A. M. Conger of the Arlington Heights Township High School has just been notified that this school has been approved by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for the period ending June 30, 1940. In explanation of the term of approving, the local school authorities have been advised that it is the established policy of the Association to prepare each year a new list of approved secondary schools accorded this honor and that no school is approved by the North Central Association for a period longer than one year.

Before any school can be considered for approval by the North Central Association, it must be on the highest list of schools approved and accredited by the school authorities within the state. It must also meet the policies, regulations, and criteria which the Association maintains. These include such matters as instruction and spirit, school plant, sanitation and janitorial service, instructional equipment, the school library and library service, school records, policies of the board of education and the administration of the school and its financial support, preparation of the instructional and supervisory staff, the teaching load, the pupil load, and the educational program. This list includes such matters as the school's program of studies, its allied activities program, its guidance provisions, the success of its program, and the school and its community relations.

The North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools approves both secondary schools and institutions of higher learning in twenty states comprising a large portion of North Central and Central United States reaching from Montana in the Northwest and Arizona and New Mexico in the Southwest to Ohio, Indiana, and West Virginia in the East. It is the aim of the Association to bring about a better acquaintance, a keener sympathy and a heartier cooperation between colleges and secondary schools; second, to consider common educational problems and devise the best ways and means of solving them; and third, to promote the physical, intellectual, and moral well-being of students by urging proper sanitary conditions of school buildings, adequate library and laboratory facilities, and higher standards of scholarship. All decisions of the Association bearing on the policies and management of secondary schools and institutions of higher education are understood to be advisory in their character. The approval of schools by this Association is a cooperative undertaking and membership is purely voluntary. No school is approved unless there is the expressed desire of the local authorities of a high school for such approval.

Certain advantages result from such approval. In brief, they are: 1. Graduates of any approved high school are privileged to enter institutions of higher learning within the North Central states without entrance examinations, provided they have credits in the high school subjects required by the college or university to which admission is sought. Since other approving agencies recognize North Central schools, this privilege of entering institutions of higher education without examination is extended practically throughout the United States. (There are some institutions of higher learning who do not admit graduates of North Central high schools if the ranking of these graduates are in the lowest one-fourth of the graduating class.)

2. The graduates of approved high schools have the assurance that their high school diplomas will be acceptable to State Boards having to do with the granting of certificates for the various professions of medicine, dentistry, law, etc. In states requiring graduation from approved high schools as a prerequisite to the obtaining of a teaching certificate, the graduates of schools approved by the North Central Association meet the requirements of such a law.

3. A high school approved by the North Central Association must maintain high standards and consequently the community is assured of a program of modern high school education.

4. The visitation of the school at regular intervals by supervisors serves to stimulate progress and to prevent the development of questionable practices and tendencies.

5. A high school approved by the North Central Association enjoys a greater prestige in the surrounding country and therefore finds it easier to attract non-resident students.

6. The patrons have more confidence in and are generally more willing to support an approved high school.

Wins Fraternity Honor At University of Illinois

Arthur D. Swift of Arlington Heights, was one of 21 junior class men in the University of Illinois recognized this week by election to Ma-Wan-Da, honorary organization. The choices were announced by a plaque, shaped like a tomahawk head, hung on an ancient campus elm. The names were painted on the plaque.

Swift was chosen because of Illinois yearbook, Star course concert and entertainment board, gymnastics, Men's Independent District association, Young Men's Christian association, Interfraternity council, dramatics, Student-Alumni association, and military department.

Arlington Churches Plan Softball League

During the past week plans were formulated for the organization of a softball loop composed of representatives of the various church groups of Arlington Heights.

It is planned to play 16 in. slow pitching, thereby encouraging the older men as well as the younger fellows to come out for their respective teams.

The games will be played at the north side school grounds and it is hoped the league will be ready for play within the next several weeks.

It is planned to donate a trophy which would be in temporary possession of the winner until they were three times victorians.

The purpose of the league is to foster good fellowship and a better understanding between neighbors.

If you are interested in playing, please contact the following men for membership on the team of your particular group:

St. John (Evangelical) — Herb Hammer.

Methodist — Marvin Prellberg or Arthur Ashcraft.

Presbyterian — Bill Beckman.

St. Peter's (Lutheran) — Dick Wilke.

St. James (Catholic) — Charles O'Hagan or Louis Sadecky.

Christian Science — Mr. Walter Dick.

More Girl Baseball Candidates Wanted

The first practice session of the Karstens Moravian team is now history, but it will keep indefinitely as it was "on ice" throughout its duration as will be attested by the 18 candidates that appeared.

This Friday the girls will hold another practice, this time at the softball field in Recreation Park. Be there at 7 o'clock with your glove and ready to go.

The following Tuesday being a holiday there will be no practice, however on Friday, June 2, the girls will meet again on the park field.

Wilda Marten Charles Close Married May 20

Miss Wilda Marten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Marten of Evanston, and a former teacher in the North school became the bride of Mr. Charles Close, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred P. Close of Kansas City, in a very simple and beautiful service in the chapel of the first Methodist church of Evanston, Saturday afternoon at 4:30.

Dr. Ernest Tittle read the service before an altar attractively decorated with snap dragons and calla lilies.

Miss Marten wore a beige suit with fur trimming, and hat to match, her accessories were dubonnet, and she carried orchids. Mrs. Albert Tangora of Evanston, sister of the bride, wore a rose colored suit and a corsage of lilies. The groom and his best man, his brother, Mr. Philip Close of Kansas City, wore dark business suits.

Immediately following the service a reception was held in the parlor, which was decorated for the occasion with white stock, snapdragons and calla lilies.

Mrs. Alfred Scott and Miss Eliza Beare of Arlington Heights poured.

Miss Marten is a graduate of Northwestern University and a member of Kappa Delta sorority, and until last fall has been a teacher in the North school of Arlington Heights for the past several years.

Mr. Close is a graduate of the University of Kansas and has been associated with the Arlington Seating company for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Close left for a motor trip to Colorado and on their return, will be at home in the Vail Davis apartments.

Several Arlington Heights friends of the bride and groom were guests at the wedding, as were relatives from Kansas City and Indiana.

Fellowship Club To Give Free Picnic

A free picnic will be given by the A. H. Fellowship club, Sunday, June 4, at Elk Grove, next to Al Kramer's home on State Rd., between Algonquin and Higgins rd., beginning at 11:30 a. m.

Foot races, baseball, horse shoes and other events will be held with prizes given to winners for all events.

Bring your lunch and come out with your family and friends. Follow the arrow from State rd. to the grounds.

Harmonica Club Presents Recital at Mrs. Homer Byrds

Introducing Arlington Heights Little Folks Sacred Concert at Presbyterian Church Sunday

Stanley Sieburg (he is the young fellow at the left) tried his best to get the photographer to allow him to have his Scotty dog in the picture but when reminded that he could not even take his dog to kindergarten, smiles broke out as he said "OK" to the picture man. Stanley resides at 411 N. Dunton, is five years old and has brown hair.

It is a sister and brother at the right. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer, 29 S. Vail. Dawn is getting to getting to be a young lady, if you please. She is in the second grade at school and Mrs. E. H. Niemeyer, 29 S. Vail Ave. Dawn is getting to only 3½ years old and is having such a good time with his bike that he forgets to come home at meal time.

Chinese Pastor at St. Johns Tells of Eastern Crisis

The Reverend Mr. Philip Lee, pastor of the Chinese Christian Union Church of Chicago, delivered an interesting message on the subject, "Christians in the Far Eastern Crises," in St. John Evangelical church of Arlington Heights Sunday evening.

Reverend Lee is a brilliant thinker and an ardent champion of the cause of Christ in China. Among the many interesting facts which were given the audience was told that "Eighty per cent of the Chinese leaders are Christian," that the present war strategy of the Chinese is a retreat to the hinterland bringing along with them their "trailer capital." It was the belief of the speaker that China's great "man power," abundant natural resources, scientific advances in industry and agriculture, vast geographical area, a unified national morale, distinctive pride in their own national culture, and Christian leadership will in time defeat the Japanese armies in the land. Reverend Lee felt deep sorrow for the economic collapse which will await Japan when the war is finally ended.

A delightful demonstration of Chinese musical instruments and folk melodies was given by Mr. Peter Woo and which was greatly appreciated by many who attended this service of "international goodwill." This service was sponsored by the Educational Section of the Senior Young People's League of St. John Evangelical church. Misses Virginia Deering, and June Huecker of Mt. Prospect, and Ruth Duon of Arlington Heights, were in charge of this service. The substantial offering was given to Reverend Lee which will be added to the "Building Fund" of his Christian congregation in Chicago.

115 Attend Mother Daughter Banquet

The second annual Mother and Daughter banquet was held in St. John Evangelical church on Wednesday, May 17, at 6:30 p. m. Due to an unusual demand for banquet reservations, the committee regrets that it could not take care of the many requests.

The speaker for this year's banquet was Mrs. J. C. Vocks of Palatine, who is the second vice president of the National Women's Union and formerly president of the North Illinois District Women's Union. Mrs. Edwin Heuer acted as toastmistress. Eight young men served as waiters. The Ladies' Aid again sponsored the banquet.

Officers Elected at Junior Woman's Club Banquet

The members of the Junior Woman's club held their annual banquet at Simson's Restaurant last Monday evening. At the business meeting which followed, the officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, Miss Eleanor Smith; vice president, Miss Marcia Ruth Martens; recording secretary, Miss Peg Helwig; corresponding secretary, Miss Jane Martens, and treasurer, Miss Dorothy Bristo.

Friendly Circle to Sponsor Anniversary Party June 7

The Friendly Circle of St. John Evangelical Church will sponsor their "First Anniversary Party" on Wednesday, June 7, at 8:00 p. m. A play, "The Second Mile," will be given in connection with the anniversary celebration. There are twenty-eight members at present in the organization whose membership is constantly growing. The president of the Friendly Circle is Mrs. Dorothy Friedrichs Ottnier.

MANY THANKS
Mrs. Rose Foley and her committee wish to thank the general public for their generous contributions on Poppy day held Tuesday.

Emily Schneberger Converted To Flying As Means of Travel

Miss Emily Schneberger, 500 East Euclid, Arlington Heights, returned home Sunday afternoon from a flying trip to California. It was a "flying trip" in every sense of the word, as she made the trip by plane both ways. Of course she enjoyed California and her visit with friends in that state, but she has much more to say about the joys and thrills of air travel. She has made up her mind that her next trip by air will be to Hawaii via the China Clipper, which she saw take off when she was visiting the San Francisco Fair.

The fair is much smaller than the Chicago one of 1933, and is not commercialized. It is comprised almost solely of exhibits and is very beautiful. Attendance has not been over 17,000 a day.

Adult Education Offers Free Art Class

An opportunity is provided to the people of Arlington Heights and vicinity to study art in all its mediums under able instruction. This class can be established with the cooperation of the Adult Education Program.

Miss Berry, who resides at Bensenville, has been authorized to offer the classes to the general public of this vicinity. She desires to learn how many are interested. The class provides an opportunity for those who desire to sketch and draw as a hobby in different mediums and will also give an opportunity to the young people who might desire some preliminary work before pursuing a possible commercial art course. The instruction will be free and will probably be held in the new Recreation Park field house.

Those interested should address Miss Berry, Box 47, Bensenville, Illinois.

It Happened Here

A short time since, some one wrote an almost lyrical skit in praise of the double flowered plum, (Prunus Triloba), and the praise was just; it might well have been written of the specimen that stood in the ell under the kitchen window in its rounded, pink and white bloom like a hug, a bridal bouquet; or it could have been written of the tree in our neighbor's yard, rising from the morning mists like Venus from the green billows. But prunus is a cultivated tree, used for decorative purposes in parks and gardens, and only rarely gladdens the eyes; in our woods and along our creeks, we should find now some of our native and hardy trees in their prime of flowering; chief among these blossoming trees, to our notion, is the redbud which is startling in its beauty wherever encountered. We have seen it in stony woodlots of Missouri just as the sun was rising and men going afield; we have seen it edging the woods in company with the wild crabapple thru Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and we have found it much farther west. Sometimes it mates itself with the ethereal blue mountain lilacs of the California hills, and it is at its best along the Merced River; here it is at home on steep ledges where the outcroppings of worn rocks scarcely yield it a foothold; it loves the gray boulders and the brawling stream and it slips down the river's bank, bending above the swift

Lutherans Sponsor Service for High School Graduates

Four Lutheran churches in Mt. Prospect, Arlington Heights, Elk Grove, and West Northfield are jointly sponsoring a baccalaureate service for their young people, who are members of this year's graduating class of the local high school. The service will be held Friday, June 2, 8 p. m. in St. Peter Lutheran church.

The address to the graduating class will be given by Pastor H. C. Fricke, who will speak on the subject, "The Secret of a Full Life." The liturgical part of the worship will be conducted by Pastors J. E. A. Mueller of Mt. Prospect and F. Gehrs of Elk Grove. St. Peter's children's choir, led by Mr. Pruess, will present several appropriate numbers. Other musical features are a violin duet by Kenneth Busse and Ruth Kleiner and a vocal solo by Mary Ann Eilers.

It will be an impressive moment when the graduating group enters the church in a solemn procession, preceded by the Juniors and the children's choirs. Seniors are appearing in cap and gown, but no formal wear is required of the Juniors. Seats have been reserved for the participating high school group, who are requested to assemble in the school basement at 7:30 p. m.

The offering has been set aside in the interest of the circuit mission project. A mimeographed folder of the order of service is available for the worshippers.

Plans for this unique service have been arranged by a committee selected from the Senior and Junior group. Following is the personnel of the committee: Kenneth Koehnke, chairman; Arlene Nagel, secretary; Ruth Schulte, Elmer Seegers, Harriet Mecklenburg, Frank Schott, Melvin Bach, Robert Rehling, Edwin Blubitz, and Harold Mueller.

St. James School Hold Commencement Exercises Sunday

The graduating class of the St. James school of Arlington Heights held their commencement exercises Sunday evening before an interesting audience of parents and friends.

The commencement exercises consisted of the class of '39 marching on to the stage, which had been arranged in a manner as to represent a deck aboard ship. This was to correspond to their motto, "One of the Harbor Into the Deep." On deck they sang their class song, "Our Own School" by Lyn Udall.

The boys of the eighth grade gave a play entitled "Home Run" and a religious play "Madonna of the Rose" was presented by the girls of all grades.

Rosemary Glueck was presented with an award for the highest scholarship covering all eight grades. Margaret Platte and Paul Dolina received the Legion awards presented each year to the boy and girl chosen for scholarship and leadership and loyalty characteristics. Mrs. Wisersky presented Frances Jorstad with a medal for winning the essay contest conducted by the American Legion auxiliary.

Those who received honorable mention were: Rosemary Glueckert, Walter Geudner, and Charles Dearie. The judges who chose the winners were: Leona Cooper, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Ackerman, Arlington Heights; and Mildred Walker, Chicago.

The second part of the program consisted of Anchors Aweigh (novelty number) by the 8th grade boys.

The cast of "Home Run" were as follows: Gene Saar, Richard Goedke, George Firnbach, Walter Geudner, Francis Jorstad, Otto Nickel, Edward Gleason, Robert Bittner, Andrew Goerger, Charles Dearie, 5th, 6th and 8th grade boys, Robert Ross, John Shanley and grades. Margaret Platte and Paul 2nd, 3rd and 4th grade boys. Madonna of the Rose cast: 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 4th grades, Anthony Boder, 5th and 6th grade girls, Joanne Taylor, Mary L. Annen, Frances Simon, Constance Tossaint, Paula Syoen, Walburga Muckahm, Annabelle Tischer, Joyce Walbaum, Leona Wisersky, George Firnbach, Janice Taylor, Margaret Platt, 3rd, 4th, 5th and 6th grade boys, Hermina Brodman, Rosemary Glueckert.

Job-Creation Contest Offers Prizes To Youth

Cook County To Give Awards For Novel Money Making Schemes

New ideas for making money, proposals for new gadgets, inventions to improve modern appliances and machinery and suggestions for new uses for farm products began taking form in North Cook county as hundreds of youths joined in the NYA Job-Creation Contest which opened this week in Illinois to continue until July 22. All youths, boys or girls, under 25 years of age, are eligible to enter.

These youths first will compete for the three county prizes which will be awarded in North Cook county. Winners in the county contest and also three youths who will receive honorable mention will be eligible for the district-wide contest which includes the counties of Cook, DuPage, Grundy, Iroquois, Kane, Kankakee, Kendall, Lake and Will. Approximately eighty youths will compete for ten grand prizes which will be awarded at the State Fair in August at Springfield.

More than 300 valuable prizes are to be awarded in Illinois according to recent announcement by State NYA Director William J. Campbell. These prizes include cash awards in private industry, a tractor, round trip airplane ride to the New York world's fair, university scholarships and others.

Special appeal is being made this week to rural youth in North Cook county to take part in the competition. The contest has been set up to provide equal prize-winning opportunity for new service ideas and proposed gadgets and inventions on farm machinery presented by rural youths the same as ideas by youths in urban areas.

"Every day we read of new ideas for making money whether they are in the nature of new inventions or for providing new public services," said Mr. Campbell in commenting on the Job-Creation Contest. "We are sure that this contest will serve to create hundreds of new jobs for unemployed youths in Illinois. At least it will stimulate youth to thinking along productive lines and the exchange of ideas will produce money-making ideas which may be applied in any community no matter its size."

Young men and girls in North Cook county wishing to enter this novel Job-Creation Contest are urged to write or phone the local NYA office. The address is Joseph S. Deiner, NYA Super. local office, 605 Davis st., Evanston, Telephone number Greenleaf 7372.

Mrs. Mary Lemke, 52, Hit By Train, Dies

Mrs. Mary Lemke, 52 years old, who has been living in this vicinity all her life, died early Saturday morning as she was struck by a freight train south of Wheeling. Mrs. Lemke has been in ill health and in constant pain for some time which led her to take frequent walks along the Soo line railroad tracks near her home on Hintz rd. near Wheeling rd. It was on one of her sojourns that the fatal accident occurred.

The engineer of the Soo line had blown his whistle when he sighted Mrs. Lemke, but it was too late to stop. The body was unidentified until daybreak when a son, Elmer Lemke, went in search of his mother on finding out that she had risen during the night and left the house. An inquest was held at the Oehler undertaking parlors in Des Plaines Saturday morning where a coroner's jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the St. John's church at West Northfield, the Rev. Fechner officiating, with burial in a cemetery there.

Mrs. Lemke leaves her husband, William, and one son, Elmer; three brothers, Louis Beese of Prairie View, William Beese of Chicago, and Albert Beese of Arlington Heights; three sisters, Mrs. Fred Remus, of Arlington Heights, Mrs. William Beiser, Arlington Heights and Mrs. Emil Beiser, also of Arlington Heights.

Mrs. Lemke, nee Mary Beese, was born March 8, 1887, northwest of Arlington Heights. She was baptized and confirmed in the St. Peter's Evangelical church, Arlington Heights. She was married in Northfield in 1919.

Palatine Lions Hear About Palestine

The Palatine Lions club at their meeting last Thursday night, heard a most timely and informative talk on Palestine.

Mr. Nicholas Lattot of Arlington Heights, who spent several years in Palestine in Y. M. C. A. work, was the speaker of the evening and his illustrated lecture on Palestine, its people and the political situation there, was highly interesting.

Palestine these days looms large in the world news because of the struggle between the Jews and the Arabs for control of the country which is under British supervision. Mr. Lattot took his hearers behind the scenes of political intrigue and told them what would be the action of the British, and since his talk the news dispatches have verified his predictions to the letter.

The views of that far away land, its people and its customs were greatly enjoyed by the Lions as were the many exhibits which he had brought from that interesting and historic land.

It is timely talks such as those on the foreign situation from its many angles which have been among the feature events at the Lions club this year and every Lion feels that he is better informed on the European situation from having listened to these talks by the various able speakers who have spoken before the club.

Mr. Faust who has served so faithfully as postman, is quite ill. Miss Anna Beckman spent Sunday with her brother's family at Wheaton.

Mr. and Mrs. Breese attended a symphony concert in Orchestra hall Thursday night last week.

Mrs. R. Williams has returned home after having spent several weeks in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lindner made an auto trip to Wisconsin the first part of the week.

Palatine

N. W. Buenzow, the new painter and decorator who has located here, is painting the Sanford bakery.

Dr. McLean has returned to Palatine spending a short time at his home in Hartford, Mich., getting his garden "all set" for the summer.

Dale Miller is working for Dr. Gorsline.

Geo. Zuelsdorf and bride were Palatine visitors Sunday.

Mrs. Willman's daughter, Rosina, is visiting at home, called here on account of the continued illness of her mother.

Al Smith is planning upon leaving for another trip to California. Mrs. Louise Schultz entertained a number of relatives Sunday.

Vernette Schroeder has been unable to attend school on account of illness.

Henry Mueller, Last Member of Family Dies

Henry Mueller, 66 years old, former Elk Grove resident, died Tuesday morning at the home of Wm. Deane, Des Plaines. The funeral will be held at the W. C. Oehler chapel, Des Plaines at 2:30 Friday and from there to Elk Grove Lutheran church.

Deceased was born Dec. 8, 1872, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Mueller. He spent the greater part of his life in Elk Grove and had never married. He was the last of his family, leaving only fourteen nephews and nieces.

Cups To Be Awarded To Winners In Youth Parade

Ninth District To Meet At Recreation Park Field House

The Ninth District of the American Legion and Auxiliary held its Fourth Annual Youth Convention and Parade Sunday afternoon in Hanson Park athletic field in Chicago.

Seventy-seven youth organizations sponsored by the twenty-eight Legion posts and twenty-three Legion Auxiliary units of the ninth district participated in this youth day program.

Despite the inclement weather in the form of lightning, rain and wind which threatened to send thousands of youngsters and thousands of spectators back to their homes when the parade and competition was just about to start, the parade started only about one-half hour late, and the final ceremonies wound up in an atmosphere of spring sunshine.

Thousands On Parade
To the beat of the drums, to the sound of the bugles, to the martial airs of the many bands, the youths of the ninth district went on parade and competed for prizes. The many and varied colors of the beautiful uniforms represented the many colors of the rainbow.

Led by Victory Post American Legion Drum and Bugle Corps, two time state champions, seventy-seven youth organizations marched and competed for the prizes.

Arlington Heights was well represented in the parade and contest by the Drum and Bugle Corps, the Boy Scouts and Cub Pack.

42 Cups To Be Given
Forty-two cups will be awarded to the first and second place winners and in a few instances to the third and fourth place winners at the next ninth district American Legion meeting which will be held in the Arlington Heights Recreation Park field house on Wednesday evening, May 31. NEW ORGAN AT KARSTENS FUNERAL HOME

In drawing plans for the remodeling of his funeral home, W. F. Karstens missed nothing that would add to the completeness of the accommodations and service that would be available. Included in these is the Estey organ (shown above), specially constructed for funeral service. It stands in an alcove and is hardly noticeable. It possesses the fine tones that are seldom heard outside of large pipe organs.

Above is to be seen the entrance hallway of the recently remodeled Karstens Funeral Home. The view is from the family room. Entrance to the chapel proper is at the right of the hallway, while the office is in the background. The staircase leads to the upper flat occupied by the Karstens family. There is a homelike atmosphere about this entire funeral home. It is open at all times to any person or groups of persons who desire to inspect it.

Victor A. Pecchia, Jr., vice commander of the ninth district, was general chairman of this youth activity. He was ably assisted by the area chairmen of the American Legion, the Legion Auxiliary and a committee of forty from both organizations. Through the columns of this paper, the chairman wishes to thank the many people who assisted and cooperated with him in this great project, and particularly the youngsters and parents who contributed so much to the success of this youth day.

This week marks the closing week of the popularity contest, which has, for a rousing finale, the popularity dance at Arlington Ballroom on the evening of June 3. Votes must be in as soon as possible, using the printed ballot in this issue upon which to register your choice for the "Popularity Queen."

Space is provided on this ballot for the purpose of writing in the name of any candidate whose name does not appear on the official list of contestants.

All votes must be mailed or personally delivered to the Arlington Ballroom. Their early receipt will insure greater accuracy in tabulation. Votes in surprisingly large numbers have already been received.

OFFICIAL INSPECTION

SAFE-T-TEST your car on

WEAVER SAFETY LANE

At No Charge!

Don't Spoil Your DECORATION DAY TRIP

BRAKES

An instant stop on the Brake Tester shows whether brakes are adequate to stop your car within a reasonable distance. Also whether they are equalized well enough to avoid side pull or swerving of the car during an emergency stop. No safety factor of your car is more important than its brakes. Keep them in safe condition.

STEERING

Drive over the Alignment Indicator and be sure side drag is not scuffing away your tire tread. Side drag is also evidence of faulty wheel alignment, a condition that interferes with steering control, and ultimately leads to shimmy, tramp, wheel fight, and hard steering. Let us detect and correct these conditions before they ruin your tires or cause an accident.

HEADLIGHTS

Night driving is three times as dangerous (proven by accident statistics) because headlights are neglected, lose brilliance and drivers habitually over-drive them. Our Headlight Tester shows how bright each light is in candlepower, and also shows whether it is aimed to give maximum road illumination. Good headlights mean eye comfort as well as safety.

We make the same test with the same equipment used for official inspection in Chicago and Evanston.

HEALTH AND HAPPINESS

B. C. W. Lussman of Sieburg Pharmacy

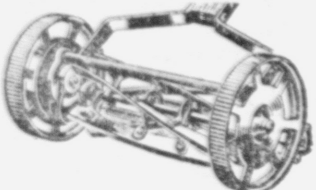

The world darkens at times for all of us, but it brightens more quickly for the person who has sound health, because such a person has the buoyancy to regard misfortune as an experience rather than as a climax to life. The healthy person isn't stampeded by circumstances. Instead he has the courage to see straight through to the other side.

If your health and spirits are below par, so that life seems a weary struggle, instead of a good game, don't wait. Go to the best doctor you can find and have a thorough examination. If he finds a prescription necessary, be careful that you take it to a good druggist who has the reputation for accuracy and care in filling orders. There is more need for precaution than perhaps you realize.

Who's Who

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Foxworthy and family, moved from Chicago into their home on McDonald rd. at the end of last year. The three children who are still at home with their parents are Dorothy, Robert, and Donald.

Mr. Foxworthy's home town is Cadron, Nebraska, where he worked on his parent's farm and later taught school there.

Mr. Foxworthy is a carpenter contractor and has been in business for a number of years. He enjoys working around the house and is very much interested in church work. He is Deacon of Music at the Jefferson Park Bible church and is very interested in all kinds of boy's activities. Mr. Foxworthy is of English and Irish descent.

Mrs. Foxworthy is originally from Kanesville, Missouri, where she attended school, but in order to attend high school, she went to Chadron, Nebraska, where she met Mr. Foxworthy and later they were married.

Mrs. Foxworthy enjoys all kinds of work and especially likes to cook and is of Irish and German descent.

Dorothy helps mother at home and likes to embroider, draw, and is very much interested in all kinds of girls work.

Bob is employed by Gusek Press in Chicago, as a printer.

Donald, the youngest, attends the Wheeling District No. 23 school, and is very interested in reading and really enjoys riding around on his new bicycle, which he received a short time ago on his birthday.

SCHAUMBURG

by ROGER KAPPA

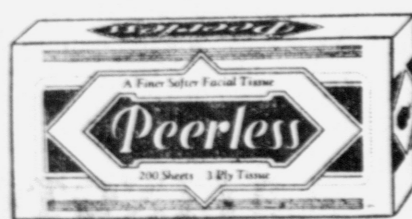

On Sunday, May 21, many people were startled to see a plane circling around the village as if looking for a place to land. Some minutes later the plane did land on the farm occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Berlin. The two lads in the plane said they flew from Dixon, Ill., and were out of gas. They were trying to make the Pal-Waukee airport where the plane is stored. The plane stayed in Mr. Berlin's oat field until Tuesday afternoon. The damage done to the oat field was about $50.

On Monday evening a banquet was held for the various school tax and village officials in different townships. Many of these men and some from the county, made very interesting and educational speeches on the various subjects. We certainly with the first course of the around the large room in the Sherman Hotel and see a good sized table with the first course of the dinner standing untouched. On the table was a placard bearing the words, "Reserved For Schaumburg Township." No one was there and our looking around the room could not bring any sight of one overhead as saying, "Something will have to be done about Schaumburg."

Mr. Arnold Freise, was elected the vice president for the Walther League of the Northern Illinois Suburban League on an election held a few days ago. This, we are assured, is quite an honor, especially so when we have only a few votes. Be assured by this writer that the various duties of this office will be carried out diligently as proven to me by several years contact with Arnold.

On Thursday, May 18, Beverly Schaaf celebrated her 15th birthday by entertaining several of her aunts and uncles, also her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Magnusson, and nephew Ronald. Cake and ice cream was served and everyone had a pleasant evening. Congratulations, Beverly.

On Tuesday, Decoration day, Mr. Alford, proprietor of the Royal Blue Store, at McDonald and Elmhurst rds., wishes to announce that the store will be open from 8:00 a. m. until 11:00 a. m.

Mrs. Arnold Krause, journeyed into Chicago on Tuesday to attend her club at the home of Mrs. Matthis. After a delicious lunch, the ladies had a pleasant afternoon playing cards.

Miss Lancaster, sister of Bill, visited with her nephew and niece on Saturday, while Bill and Alice were out stepping.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Danielson, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Collins and Mr. and Mrs. William Lancaster, drove down to the Baker Hotel at St. Charles, Ill., in order to attend the dinner dance sponsored by the Mount Prospect Masonic club. The folks returned in the wee sma' hours and report a grand time.

The Rauens left Friday afternoon and journeyed up to Baraboo, Wisconsin, to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Marquardt, while in the vicinity they also visited Mr. and Mrs. John Popp, formerly of Buffalo Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. John Timme, of Lake Delton, Wis. The folks returned Sunday afternoon after a very enjoyable trip.

Thursday afternoon about 4:00 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Neagles, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nielsen left on a fishing trip to Promont, Wis. The folks returned Monday afternoon and from all reports everyone had a grand time fishing. Unfortunately the fishermen did not catch enough fish to bring home.

Virginia Dempsey entertained her fiancée, Roy Adams, of Green Bay, Wis., over the week-end. Roy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Adams, and his brother, Franklin, of Chicago, were also dinner guests at the Dempsey home on Sunday. Franklin is the young man who takes the part of Jack Parker of the Parker Family heard over WBBM radio station.

On Saturday evening Virginia and Roy were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy of Burlington, Wisconsin at the Continental Hotel, where all had a very nice time.

Mrs. James Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey, drove in from Burlington, Wisconsin on Tuesday and then mother and daughters went into Chicago to do some shopping.

We regret that two of the children on Willow rd. were unable to attend school this week on account of sickness. They are Carol Dempsey and Nan Cowling. We wish them both a speedy recovery and hope that they will return to school very soon.

Mr. Carleton Smith advises us that Mr. Hasfurther, who is State Sanitary and Health Inspector, has been out during the past week making an inspection of the septic tanks and cesspools which are being installed and he was very favorably impressed with the work being done in this community.

Mrs. Fred Hoffman is still suffering from a very severe attack of Lumbago and sciatica. She has been confined to bed for the past week and we surely wish her a speedy recovery from these very painful ailments.

Mr. Knollmuller was a very busy lady again last Sunday when she entertained 14 relatives and friends.

Mrs. William Stegeman entertained her sister, Mrs. J. Blake, and her brother, Edward Hendrickson of Chicago on Saturday. After a delicious supper the folks spent a pleasant evening playing lucky eight.

On Monday the Stegeman cat which is reddish brown strayed from home, and if any one should see such a cat running, please get in touch with the Stegeman family on Elmhurst rd.

If any of the folks in the community should at any time need help with the fixing up or the work around their home, William Stegeman Jr., is at present unemployed and will be glad to work for the folks in the community for the small sum of 25c per hour.

While on the subject of garden work, if there should be anyone interested in planting asparagus, they should see Tom Underwood and get a tip or two from him, as he is an authority on that subject.

Lou Jennrich on Elmhurst rd.

having purchased a gasoline lawn mower is interested in having jobs to mow lawns. He charges $1.00 for doing both the front and back lawns.

Mrs. Nan Rauen entertained Mrs. Philippine Gunther, Mrs. Helen Gunther, and Mrs. Mary Panzer on Wednesday. After lunch the ladies had a grand time sewing and fitting dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Beaver and family, Itasca, Illinois, were dinner guests on Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Torreyson.

Mrs. Al Matz, mother of Mrs. Hartke, visited with her family on Clarendon ave., during the week and had a very pleasant time with her grandchildren, Heather and Holly.

Mr. Vincent, who is on vacation just at present, has had a grand vacation fixing up their yard and making everything look real nice.

We are glad to report that Marion Blair, the young lady who so ably takes care of the business in the Chicago office of Smith & Dawson, and who is known to so many in Prospect Heights, is now back at work fully recovered from her sick spell.

Arlington High School Beats Woodstock, 10-0

Shut-out Clinches N. E. Conference Title

Arlington beat Woodstock 10-0 last Friday in a high school baseball game. The victory, seventh straight for the Cardinals, clinched the championship of the Northeast conference.

Bob Busse pitched his team to its first shut-out of the season and his own fourth win. Elmer Kirchhoff, hard-hitting shortstop, had a perfect day at bat, driving in two runs, scoring three, walking twice, and getting two hits in two official trips to the plate. In addition, Kirchhoff was in the middle of a relay play from Beckman in center to the plate which cut down Woodstock's only serious scoring threat.

Woodstock's pitcher, a junior named Johnson, held the Cardinals to three hits, their lowest number in any game this season. His effectiveness, however, was chiefly the result of lack of control as he walked eight, hit one batsman, wild-pitched three men home, and had Arlington batters in the dirt all afternoon.

Botts, the catcher, committed three passed balls and the team made five errors to contribute to the agony of the pitcher. Five of the Woodstock line-up were freshmen and the flashes of good baseball which they played gave promise of an excellent team in future years.

Captain George Grossi hit safely for his seventh consecutive game. Bob Fimbach walked three times before hitting a pop-up to shortstop. He and Beckman made several sparkling catches in the outfield. F. Kehe played heads-up ball, scoring twice and stealing two bases. Lemke hit his usual quota of line drives, but all were directed at infielders.

Arlington goes to Barrington next Monday for its last varsity game of the year. It will have concluded the conference season by that time as the Leyden game on Wednesday, May 24, is the finale.

Sun Shines But Wet Field Holds Up Redwing Tilt

Johnson Motors Play Arlington Team At Park Dedication

Arlington Redwings and the Majewski Boosters were prevented from meeting at the Recreation Park, last Sunday, because of the sloppy condition of the infield after a brief morning rain. The red clay spread on the infield retained the water while the rain drained through the outfield and was dry. Similar experiences have hampered the ball club before after slight showers.

Park Dedication Sunday

Two high calibre games are on schedule for this week. On Sunday Arlington will play the Johnson Motors Co. team of Waukegan. This game will be part of the park dedication program. Last year this club downed Arlington 5-3. Bringing this team back again should quiet those fans who are inclined to believe that the local management books only those games which can be won.

Schaeffer will be on the hill trying for his third win of the season.

On Tuesday, the Higgins A. C. will continue their game a year series with the local team. Last summer the Redwings barely came out on top with a 1-0 win. Al Pederson, former Northwestern University hurler and outfielder, will do the twirling. This will be his second start of the year, having pitched against Glen Ellyn several weeks ago.

In 21 innings so far Schaeffer has collected 26 strikeouts and allowed 4 runs and 15 hits. Pederson, who worked 4 innings at Glen Ellyn, has allowed 3 hits in that time.

Some of the boys have not gained their batting eye as yet, while others are far over their natural hitting marks. In a few weeks the law of averages will begin to work, but right now here is how they are hitting.

Palatine Defeats McHenry On Their 220 Yard Track

Palatine won their sixth dual victory of the track season last Friday when they conquered McHenry on the northern school's small 220 yard track by a score of 69-52. Fink with 11 points, Buenow with 10, and Snyder with eight led Pirate scorers. Howes set a new Palatine school record in the pole vault with 10 feet 1 inch.

Palatine scored eight first places while McHenry registered six. Ferwanda, a fast sprinter, took both the 100 and 220 yard dashes for McHenry. Palatine took both first and second in the high hurdles, pole vault, 880 yard run, high jump, discus, and javelin. Few of the marks in track events were up to par due to the short turns on the small track.

Bisons Whip Barrington 101-25

Bisons Win Every Event Except The Freshman Relay

Bensenville won their fifth straight dual track victory last Friday when they drubbed Barrington by a count of 101-25. The Bisons won every first place except the Freshman relay. Speckman was leading scorer with 13 points.

Mangels Helps Coe Win Midwest Track Title

Leighton Mangels, who came to the front as a middle distance runner at Palatine high school in his senior year back in 1935, had a hand in helping Coe win the Midwest Conference track title last week at Cedar Rapids, Iowa. Coe scored 67 points to 40 for their nearest rival, Carleton, to win their fifth title in the 12 years. The Kohawks have won second place six times in the same period.

Mangels ran on the Coe mile relay team which took first place in 3:28.8 and according to Cedar Rapids sports writers, his 440 was the deciding factor. Mangels is a junior at Coe. Only one Coe man who competed on the championship track squad this year is a senior.

Bisons Take Cup At Palatine By 28 Point Margin

Palatine and Barrington Tie For Second Place

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE TRACK MEET SUMMARY
Bensenville 72; Palatine 44; Barrington 44; Grant 35; Northbrook 0.

Led by Capt. Katayama and Speckman, who topped two first places apiece, Bensenville's well balanced track team scored 72 points in winning the annual Northwest Conference meet at Palatine Tuesday. Palatine and Barrington tied for second with 44 points while Grant was fourth with 35. Northbrook taking up track for the first time this year failed to tally.

Bensenville scored in every event, piling up seven first places in the point counting events and winning the medley and 880 relays. Palatine won four first places, including the 440, 880, mile, and Frosh relay. Grant won the discus and pole vault and Barrington the javelin throw.

Katayama High Scorer
The outstanding performer for Bensenville was Katayama, who won the high jump and low hurdles and took third in the javelin for 13 points to lead all the scorers. Speckman won the 100 and 220 for 10 points. Pomplum won the high hurdles and took fifth in the broad jump.

Sievers placed in both high hurdles and shot put. Kevell won the broad jump with a fine mark while Baumgartner was third. Bison scorer with nine points collected through winning the shot and taking second in the discus.

Pirates Overtake Bronchos
Going into the final event, the mile run, Palatine was trailing Barrington by four points, but Cipri and Field scored seven points to overtake the Bronchos. Cipri trailed Guthrie of Bensenville stride for stride in the mile until the final 100 yards and then sprinted by to win in his best time of the season.

The winner was the Pirates' leading scorer with a first and a second for nine counts. Hollinger's victory in the 440 was by the greatest margin of any race on the program. Fink scored seven points for Palatine with fourths in both hurdles and third in the discus.

Church, Myers, Nestlerode, Kampert, Heran, Lipofsky, Landgate, and Dawson were Barrington's best competitors while Norrell and Anderson were the standout for Grant.

Mac Says

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

Bensenville brought their most successful track season to a close at Palatine Tuesday by winning the Northwest Conference title in convincing fashion. Last Saturday the Bisons won the Du Page County Centennial meet with 31 points to 24 for Downers Grove, their nearest rival. Of course York and Naperville had all their best men at the State meet but that takes nothing from the glory of many fine marks chalked up by Trapp's boys.

UNDEFEATED IN DUAL MEETS

Bensenville won all their six dual meets during the season without being pressed. Trapp's team is unusually well balanced for a representative from a school of less than 300 students. Bensenville's dual record consists of the following scores: 71 1/2; Palatine 45 1/2; 51 1/6; Arlington 42 5/6; 93 1/6; Leyden 28 5/6; 73 York Reserves 59; 93 2/3; Palatine 28 1/3; 101 1/3; Barrington 25 2/3.

BAUMGARTNER, ALL ROUND ATELETE
The Northeast loop has O'Hara, a one man team in himself up at Lake Forest, but down at Bensenville is a boy named Baumgartner who is the number one track athlete of the Northwest league. What is more he is but a junior. Baumgartner is a consistent winner in shot and discus. He can high jump five feet eight inches, pole vault 10 feet, broad jump 19 feet, and is the fastest runner on the squad which includes Speckman who has been unbeaten in the sprints in dual meets.

PLACE IN STATE MEET
Several boys who competed in the Palatine Relays back in April helped uphold the reputation of the meet for attracting state winners by scoring at Champaign last week-end. Ekstrom of Harlem ranked highest by taking third in the state championship half mile. Preston of Naperville was fifth in the pole vault and Bauman of Marquette tied for third in the high jump. These boys were winners in their events at the Palatine meet.

York won the state meet with 22 points while New Trier, our pick, was second with 17 points. Freeman of York established new records in the shot and discus.

Sixty different boys shared the medals awarded at the Northwest Conference meet at Palatine Tuesday. Eighteen different Bensenville boys won awards while 16 from Palatine, 15 from Barrington, and 11 from Grant, took home prizes.

TOUGH LUCK FOR THESE BOYS

Tuesday was a tough luck day for a couple of fine track athletes. Gells of Bensenville was one of them. He was sure first or second in both the 440 and pole vault, but a pulled muscle kept him out of action. Barth, one of Grant's best sprinters, was called home soon after he arrived at the meet due to the sudden death of his mother.

QUITE A DAY FOR SENNE

John Senne, Palatine sophomore, served as announcer at the conference meet Tuesday and he certainly had a lot of nice results to announce from the standpoint of Bensenville fans. Coach Werhan of Grant ran the broad jump and high jump. Clark of Barrington was finish line clerk, while yours truly of Palatine, lined up the boys in their heats and lanes at the starts. The coaches planned the meet and ran it off smoothly and without a hitch to the satisfaction of everyone. We hope that having the conference meet at Palatine will be a fixture as long as we are connected with the school.

BALLARD STARTED MEET

Robert Ballard, popular basketball official of St. Charles, donated his services as starter of the Northwest Conference meet and did a mighty swell job of getting the running events underway. A good way for coaches to show their appreciation would be to include Ballard on their referee list for next winter.

News For The Farmer

Dairymen To Study Artificial Breeding

Woodstock Meeting Called for Discussion Of Association Methods

One of the latest developments in dairy breeding work is the development of artificial breeding associations. Such associations have operated in New Jersey, New York and Wisconsin for some time. In order to acquaint Cook County farmers with the successes these organizations have met and the difficulties they have encountered, a meeting is being called in the Circuit Court room at Woodstock, Thursday evening, June 1 at 9 p. m., daylight saving time. Professor C. S. Rhode and Dr. Robert Graham of the University of Illinois, will appear on the program and discuss plans that have been made to date.

It is desired to secure a cross section of the thinking of our dairymen in this area. Since this plan has come up we suggest that farmers who are interested in improving their dairy herds with the best dairy blood available at a nominal expense, should make an attempt to attend this meeting.

Speed of Bullets

The speed of a bullet varies from 800 to 4,000 feet per second. The .30-caliber service rifle bullet has a speed of 2,700 feet per second. A revolver bullet travels between 900 and 1,000 feet per second.

Plenty of Fruit This Year With Strawberries

On the whole it appears that there will be an abundance of fruit this year from early spring reports received at the Cook County Farm Bureau.

Illinois prospects are above the average. Early apples in the southern part of the state suffered from low temperature, but the later varieties as Jonathans and Winesaps have practically no freeze injury. Peaches sustained some April freeze damage in the southern part of the state, however, the uplands have a good peach crop in prospect. In central and northern Illinois pear trees show a very good set of fruit. The strawberry outlook is for the largest crop on record.

For the United States as a whole apples appear to be coming on in abundance, with an average production of peaches and also pears.

LAW ON THE FARM

Chattel Mortgages — Farmers nowadays are using a large amount of short-term credit to finance crops, purchase equipment and supplies and buy lands and feed. State laws relative to the use of personal property as security for such loans have, therefore, become of increased importance.

The chattel mortgage is the most common form of security for such loans. It is simply an instrument allowing an owner of personal property to transfer title to another in return for a loan, and at the same time retain and use the property listed as security. The items of farm property generally included are feed, growing crops and livestock. Machinery, equipment and other belongings may be included.

The following limitations on the use of personal property as security should be noted: mortgages including household goods must be joined in by both husband and wife; the landlord's statutory lien against crops takes precedence over the lien created by the mortgage. The mortgage must describe items of property sufficiently to afford a means of identifying them.

In 1874 the Illinois Legislature passed an act specifying that no chattel mortgage shall be valid as against third parties unless the instrument is acknowledged (notarized), and "is deposited for filing, or recording in the office of the recorder of deeds... within 10 days of its execution" (Signing). The law also provides that the maturity of the obligation secured by the mortgage shall not exceed three years from the receipt of the instrument for recording or filing, except that by depositing an affidavit with the recorder the mortgagee and mortgagor can secure a one-year extension. This must be done within 90 days after the expiration of the three years, and the maturity is then prolonged for the one year plus another 90 days. It is thus possible to make a chattel mortgage valid over a period of approximately four and one-half years.

It is illegal to sell or dispose of mortgaged property without the written consent of the person holding the mortgage, and anyone doing so is subject to a maximum fine amounting to twice the value of the property sold and to a jail sentence not exceeding one year or both.

In 1933 a special section was added to the law on chattel mortgages providing that:

1. No chattel mortgage on feed which is to be consumed shall be invalid so long as the feed is consumed by livestock in the same mortgage, or by livestock (horses or mules) used in producing a crop included in the mortgage.

2. No mortgage on fertilizers or seed to be used shall be invalid if such seed or fertilizer is used to

Farm Bureau Nine Encouraged By Redwings Game

The North-Cook Farm Bureau baseball team surprised itself when it scored four runs against the Arlington Heights Redwings in their first game last Friday.

"Since the Redwings are recognized as a strong team, and the farm boys are not in top form, they have hopes of giving a good account of themselves in their district," stated Vernon Landmeier, manager and trainer.

The first official game is with the Will County Farm Bureau team this Saturday at Manhattan. South-Cook also has a promising team this year.

Appropriation For Bang's Testing Proposed

A letter from John P. Stout, Superintendent of Animal Industry in the State Department of Agriculture, to Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes, calls attention to House Bill 803 which the Agricultural Committee of the House has reported out with the recommendations that it pass. This bill carries an appropriation which must also have the recommendation of the appropriation committee, of which Hugh Green is chairman, before it can be passed.

The Cook County Farm Bureau is not advising farmers to test or not to test for Bang's disease. The Bureau feels that each and every farmer in the light of his own judgment must decide what he wants to do about contagious abortion in his herd. However, the Bureau does wish to point out that sometime in the future no doubt city ordinances in Chicago and elsewhere will be passed requiring herds to be tested for Bang's disease. Such ordinance will be out of the domain of the Farm Bureau and nothing can prevent a city from passing such an ordinance.

Whether testing is the proper way of getting rid of Bang's disease, we are not certain. A new method has been proposed whereby calves may be immunized against the disease and eventually all aborter cows disposed of. Whether this method will be 100% correct or not we do not know. Nevertheless, there is always the possibility of a general order for testing against abortion.

It would appear at this time, when beef cattle prices are fairly good and milk is very cheap, that a farmer might take the risk of testing and getting rid of aborter cows. Records show that aborter cows are not the most profitable so this might be good dairy management if nothing else. Nevertheless, as the situation stands, if this appropriation is not made there will be no funds for carrying on testing work after June 30 and if an order for testing does come through it will be rather hard on dairy farmers.

Dairymen are requested to express their views by addressing their representatives in the gen-

You Can't Paint Without A License, Farmers Told

Home Owners, Farmers Rally To Fight Painter's Bill; Ask Amendment Of Plumbers Act So Law Will Not Apply To Farms

Every farmer or home owner who wields a paint brush or hangs paper will be required to take out a state license if Senate Bill 295, sponsored by the painters' and decorators' union is enacted into law, according to information received by the Cook County Farm Bureau from the Illinois Agricultural Association.

"This bill, introduced by Sen. Kiehlinski of Chicago, has been reported favorably by the Committee on License and Miscellany and is on third reading ready for passage," says Paul Mathias of the I.A.A. Legislative Committee.

"In 1937," Mathias said, "the Illinois Agricultural Association proposed an amendment which would permit individuals to paint their own buildings without securing a state license. After this amendment was adopted, many legislators seemed to think that the principal objection to the bill had been removed and, therefore, voted for it. The IAA has not offered any amendment this year, but is endeavoring to defeat the measure."

The Association also is sponsoring an amendment to the so-called plumber's act so that the law will not apply on farms. The plumber's union is vigorously opposing the IAA amendment and legislators are being shrewdly with telegrams asking them to oppose the IAA amendment.

The plumber's act provides that a master plumber must be employed for any work on the water supply or sewage disposal system, and a technical construction of the act would make it apply to driving a well.

"In one case," the IAA legislative committee reports, "an attempt was made to enforce the law against a western Illinois farmer who was repairing his own water supply. In other cases farmers have reported difficulty in purchasing plumbing repairs where local assembly at Springfield who are Bernice T. Van Der Vries, Emmet McGrath and Arthur Sprague, Hugh Green, chairman of the appropriations committee, may also be contacted.

Farmers Ship Boarder Cows

Reports indicating that more and more Illinois farmers are shipping their low producing dairy cows to market as being received at headquarters of the Illinois Agricultural Association in Chicago, says the Cook County Farm Bureau.

A checkup at the Chicago stock yards made by the IAA shows that substantial numbers of dairy cows are being received from Illinois shipping points. Two reasons are, first, the abnormally low price paid for milk and butterfat, and secondly, the relatively favorable cattle market.

Arthur F. Burwash of Champaign county, president of the Illinois Grange Corporation, who operates a small dairy herd, reported May 12 that he recently shipped four Holstein cows weighing between 1200 and 1300 pounds to the Chicago market. They brought $5.50 per cwt. or an average of $70.20 each. Mrs. Burwash said that he couldn't afford to milk the low producers at present prices.

Last week I wrote something about enforcement. This week I want to add a few more words on that subject.

Where state laws grant courts the right to revoke licenses because of drunken or reckless driving, courts should have gumption enough and backbone enough to enforce the state laws. Some courts, however, lack the courage because of political reasons or because they do not feel the law is just.

When people's rights, especially pertaining to safety, are sacrificed because of one man's political feelings or ambitions, then the people in that community are not going to have the protection to which they are entitled. Officers can bring in violators, but the courts must enforce the law. Some judges have shown marked courage in this respect and because of it have established themselves in the community as pillars of justice and courage;

therefore, the community has benefited by their actions.

More power to jurists of that kind.

The Early Railway Trains
Passengers on the first trains that crawled along the tracks usually expected a derailment or two before they reached their destination. At least one derailment between stops seemed to be part of the trip, but the iron horses were chugging along too slowly for a mere derailment to cause any damage.

HILLSIDE NEWS

by ANNETTE HANSON

The Wilson P.T.A. held a dance last Saturday night at Rand Tower. Melvyn Preston's orchestra furnished the music. Quite a large number attended and everybody seemed to have a good time. The proceeds will be used to purchase equipment for the Wilson school playground. The members wish to thank all those that donated door prizes, Mr. Moss, Mr. Pies, Mr. Miller and the DeMir Cleaners.

I wish to make a correction on the children's party which will be held at the next P.T.A. meeting June 2. It is for all the children attending the Wilson school and, of course, the parents are invited also, we hope to see them all there with the kiddies. There will be an educational moving picture shown, and plenty of refreshments for all. As it will be the final meeting, until fall, every member should be present.

Dorothy Kasten was a surprised little lady when her grandma, Mrs. John Malton, gave her a farewell party, her girl friends were all invited for cake and ice cream. They played games and all had a delightful time. Dorothy's parents live in Michigan and Mrs. Malton took Dorothy home just in time for her mother's birthday which must have been quite a birthday present for her mother. On their way they stopped at Holland and saw all the tulips, which the town is noted for. According to Mrs. Malton, it was a beautiful sight.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. DeHart gave up their trip to Burlington, Wis., so that they wouldn't miss the dance. And we know they weren't sorry, they seemed to have a delightful time. However, they'll be motoring to Burlington, this week-end, as usual.

Mrs. Irene Neveverman went to Evanston last Saturday to spend the day with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Miller. Mrs. Orville Hamilton is spending a few days with her daughter in Clinton, Indiana.

We are sorry to hear Mrs. R. Getner is sick in bed. All her friends wish her a speedy recovery.

Wilson School News

Joyce Stange, Editor
We are having our school picnic next week, June 1.

The seventh and eighth grade had their examinations last week Friday. The fifth and sixth grade had theirs the following Monday and Tuesday.

Charles Levecke and Elmer Thorsen will graduate on May 25. They were the only two in the eighth grade.

The chorus had to practice Wednesday. The chorus sang "God Bless America" and "The Umbrella Man." The graduates sang "Farewell To Thee."

Dorothy Meyerhofer was sick in bed the first part of the week.

Tuesday evening we played baseball with Peckhamville school. We got beat this time, the score was 56 to 33. Congratulations, winners.

Too Late for Last Week
The graduation will be held on May 25, at the Arlington township high school. We will practice graduation songs on Wednesday of this week at the Stron school and the week after at the high school.

We hope it is dr. so we can play baseball with Wheeling Central school again Tuesday. We're also going to play the children in Miss Greenberg's school before school is out in June. Last Tuesday we beat the children in the Wheeling Central school. The score was 63 to 13.

The P.T.A. built a bicycle stand for all of the bicycles. They bought us a new baseball last week.

The fifth grade has finished the Health Side Restaurant and everybody says that it looks nice. We made "Feista-ware" dishes, fruit, furniture, tablecloths, and curtains.

Each person in Room 2 made something for Mother's Day. We made corner shelves and ornamental wall pockets of clothes pins.

The seventh and eighth grades are going to have their exams Friday of this week, and then Monday and Tuesday of next week the fifth and sixth grades will have theirs.

Delores Hinrichs, Ralph Smith, and Robert Guenther finished a desert poster.

We made some vases, pin dishes, and ash trays. We made them out of clay. We made them first, then we let them harden for the rest of the day. The next day we painted them. These we gave to our mother's for Mother's day.

Mothers Inspect Sons In Wheeling Troop

On Monday, May 16, Troop 18 of the Boy Scouts held a Mothers' Day meeting at Childey. About 50 were present for the program prepared by Scoutmaster Jim Neagles. In addition to the demonstration of regular scout work, the group enjoyed a period of singing which was participated in by all.

The Scout Executive for the Northwestern Council, Donald E. Kyger, gave a splendid talk on scouting, and also explained fully the opportunities of the summer camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta.

A special feature of the evening was the regular inspection of the Scout troop which was conducted by the mothers, each one checking her own son for neatness and cleanliness of hands, nails, uniform, shoes, etc. Then the tables were turned and the mothers stood in line and were in turn graded. The final check-up showed that the mothers won by a close score.

EAST MAINE

MABEL WARNCKE, Editor

The pupils of St. Matthews Lutheran school are presenting a school program of plays at the school hall on Thursday evening, June 8. An admission of 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children, will be charged and the proceeds derived from the sale of tickets, will be used to purchase a fountain for the school. Everybody is welcome.

The graduation exercises for East Maine public school will be held at Croatian school hall Friday evening, June 2, with the outing for the district and the P.T.A. to be held on Sunday, June 4. There are five graduates who will receive their diplomas on June 2, Elio Pio, Gloria Swanson, Gladys Wichman, Richard Feller and Glenn Long.

The baseball game at Downers Grove last Sunday, was rained out but next Sunday East Maine will play Winfield on the East Maine home diamond. The boys want to say "thank you" to the large crowd who attended their game at Mueller's last Saturday evening. Guests from Elgin and Chicago were the lucky winners of the gold pieces.

Quiet Ceremony Unites Mabel Koch and William Ahrens

Promptly at 4:30 p. m., Saturday, May 20, at St. Matthews Lutheran church, in a quiet ceremony performed in the presence of immediate families, Reverend Julius Toepel read the marriage ceremony which united in holy wedlock, Mabel Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Koch of Golf rd., and William Ahrens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ahrens of Morton Grove.

The bride wore an ensemble of navy blue with touches of dusty pink and a corsage of gardenias. Her maid of honor, Miss Audrey Platz was likewise gowned in navy and also wore gardenias. Attending the groom was Alvin Koch, the bride's cousin.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was enjoyed at the home of the bride's parents with members of both families attending. Later in the evening there was open house when the many friends of the young couple dropped in to wish them good luck and happiness in their new life together.

The newlyweds will make their home with the groom's parents in Morton Grove.

Start Cleaning Up For Children's Playground

Through the combined efforts of the School Board, Chamber of Commerce and Community Center Board, work has begun on the cleaning up of the old school property, preparatory for making it available as a children's playground, especially for the summer months.

A committee has also been appointed to plan a simple program of supervised play periods after the grounds are ready and also to raise funds for necessary equipment.

It should be a decided improvement to the community to have this property made attractive in appearance rather than an eyesore as it has been for the years it has been vacant.

The large shade trees also will make it an ideal summer playground, especially for our smaller children.

The greater effectiveness of the project through a program of supervised play will depend on volunteer leadership available. Civic minded residents are urged to lend their support to this worthy community enterprise.

Mrs. William Nielsen and small sons, Mac and Bob, are visiting Mrs. Nielsen's parents at Westfield, Ill.

We are sorry to note that Mr. Edmund Galitz has been very seriously ill at his home the past two weeks. However, we are pleased to note that his condition has improved and we hope he will continue convalescing.

Mr. Fred Lemke underwent an operation at the Des Plaines hospital recently and we are glad to learn that he is recovering very satisfactorily.

A sale of home-made bakery goods will be held at the Wheeling Market on Wednesday afternoon, May 31, at 2 o'clock for the benefit of the Wolf, 17, both Des Plaines. William J. Rust, Jr., 24, Des Plaines and Rita Hoffman, 23, Chicago.

Roy Morrissey, 27, Chicago and Edlyn Mueller, 27, Northbrook.

ALTARS OF FREEDOM

A Memorial Day Tribute

Patriotism is the soul of a Nation. It inspires men to put country above life; others before self.

Today, we honor once more, those mother's sons who held in their hearts this supreme ideal of citizenship, and gave their lives for it upon the altars of our freedom.

Their glory-wreaths will be kept green, and their names will shine undimmed as long as our Nation shall last.
